Who will lead the way?

We seek pastors and churches who long for an enhanced experience of racial harmony and unity in the Body of Christ in the Twin Cities. The tools learned and practiced through the cohort will equip you to disciple your congregation through our increasingly polarized communities. The relationships and partnerships formed will strengthen your connection with other followers of Jesus and help us shine better as the Body of Christ. Will you consider being among those who forge pioneering paths of discipleship for other churches to follow? We believe there is great hope for the churches of the Twin Cities to Flourish Together.
